

Two convicted of conspiracy in bombing at school

CHARLESTON, W.Va. (AP) — A federal jury convicted the Rev. Marvin Horan and Larry Stevens on Friday of conspiracy in the bombing of Midway Elementary School during the Kanawha County school textbook protest.

However, the jury acquitted Horan on three related counts. It found Stevens, a 27-year-old coal miner, guilty of all six counts in which he was named.

Horan, 34, said he viewed the verdict as a personal victory and indicated he would fight for complete exoneration. "I am very happy with the result," said Horan, a fundamentalist minister like many of the protest leaders.

Stevens said he would also appeal. U.S. District Judge K.K. Hall denied a government motion to revoke bond and jail the pair, but did impose several restrictions, including a ban on participation in the antitextbook protest.

Sentencing was set for May 19. Stevens faces a possible 55-year jail term and a fine of $60,000. Horan faces a maximum five-year term and $10,000 fine.

The verdict came late in the afternoon. The jury had deliberated since morning, reporting once to the judge it was unable to reach a verdict.

Weather

Minister says Nixon's mind is 'lightning fast'

MADISON, Wis. (AP) — Richard Nixon's mind is "lightning fast" but his face is "very worn and shows strain," says a clergyman who met privately with the former president in San Clemente last Tuesday.

He said he told Nixon he believed the death of Fasnacht was a turning point toward a tapering off of violent antiwar protests on the Madison campus and elsewhere.

CIA's knowledge in plot to kill Fidel Castro sought

WASHINGTON (AP) — The possibility that the Central Intelligence Agency withheld information from the Warren Commission about a plot to assassinate Cuban Premier Fidel Castro is being investigated by the presidential panel on CIA activities, according to informed sources.

Belin refused to comment, but another former member of the Warren Commission staff said knowledge of CIA participation in a plot to kill Castro would have influenced the commission's investigation of rumors that the Kennedy killing was a retaliatory act.

Boy, 7, in Vietnam; mom in Diamond Bar

Red tape halts reunion of mother, son

By ED PRATHER
P-B Staff Writer

The worsening situation in South Vietnam threatens to permanently separate a Diamond Bar mother and her 7-year-old son as the family tries to unravel bureaucratic red tape before it's too late.

United States in 1971, but left the child behind at the wishes of the boy's grandparents.

Centers said that the events of the last several weeks have convinced them that there's very little time left to get the boy out of Vietnam.

American officials' insistence on the divorce papers because the embassy has records of his 1970 marriage, at which time he was required to show the papers.

"I just never thought I would need them this time," lamented Centers.

$200 million aid to S. Viet voted

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate Foreign Relations Committee reluctantly voted $200 million in humanitarian aid for South Vietnam Friday, but Secretary of State Henry A. Kissinger said without military aid as well South Vietnam will collapse.

Chemicals that cause cancer found in water

WASHINGTON (AP) — Organic chemicals, including some known to cause cancer in laboratory animals, have been found in small amounts in the water supplies of 79 cities tested by the Environmental Protection Agency, the EPA said Friday.

"Even at these low levels, the chemicals are a matter of concern that warrants the diligent carrying out of our safe drinking water plans," Train said in a statement.

"I certainly would have no hesitation in drinking the water in these cities," he told reporters in response to a question. "These are low levels but that is not to belittle the problem or to say there isn't a problem," Train said.

Capture of Phan Thiet reported

Viet Cong offensive rips central coast

SAIGON, South Vietnam (AP) — The Viet Cong's spring offensive rolled on today, with Communist-led troops apparently capturing the last government enclave on the central coast, military sources said.

Four nearby district towns were lost earlier and the fall of Phan Thiet, capital of Binh Thuan province, had been considered imminent.

Phan Rang, another coastal enclave which government forces pulled out of two days ago.

In addition to the fighting around Phan Thiet and at Xuan Loc, another provincial capital 40 miles east of Saigon, small probing attacks were reported only a few miles outside the capital.

When the emergency operation began, the Immigration Service agreed to let 2,000 South Vietnamese children enter the United States for adoption under the parole procedure.

The suspension was ordered partly because officials wanted to make sure the ceiling was not exceeded. They also wanted to clear up confusing procedures so there would be no repetition of the case of 28 Cambodian children who were flown to the Washington area although many may have living parents who had not signed papers permitting their adoption.

The Immigration Service said 1,633 Vietnamese orphans have been airlifted to the United States so far.

U.S. Immigration approves 'babylift'

WASHINGTON (AP) — The U.S. Immigration Service on Friday lifted its suspension of Operation Babylift and told the State Department that about 300 more South Vietnamese orphans may be brought to the United States immediately.

The Immigration Service notified the State Department "that it may proceed with arrangements" for airlifting the youngsters to the United States under expedited procedures.

The children will be admitted under immigration paroles pending final processing of their entry applications.

The babylift was suspended Wednesday while immigration officials attempted to make sure that all of the children had the necessary papers for leaving Vietnam and entering this country.

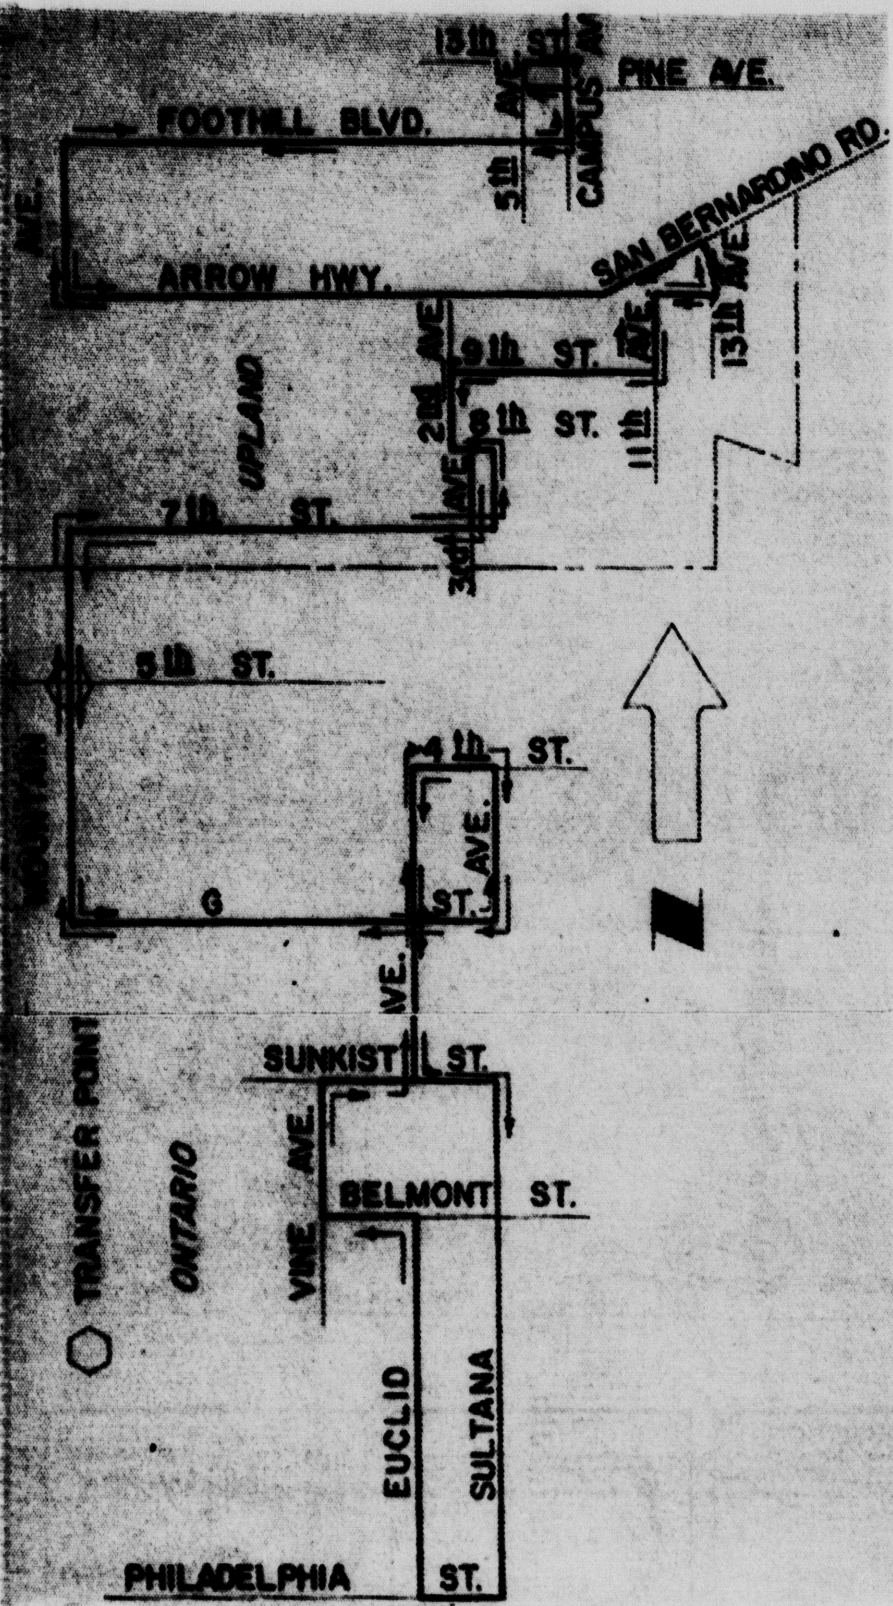

In a statement issued to newsmen, the Immigration Service said Friday's ruling applies only to children who meet three qualifications:

—They must be part of the original group of 2,000 which the Immigration Service said it would admit under the parole provision.

—They must be in the custody of a licensed adoption agency.

—And their applications for admission to the United States for adoption must have been in process as of April 10.

A NEW, EXTENDED BUS LINE

The new Ontario and Upland bus service begins Monday under the auspices of the West Valley

Transit Service Authority. The 29.4-mile route follows the routing shown above.

29-mile bus route will open in Ontario, Upland

Ontario and Upland bus service over a 29.4-mile route begins Monday. Two buses will run the hourly service on weekdays and Saturday from 6 a.m. to 7 p.m. And fares will now be charged on this and other Omnitrans lines—those in Montclair, Alta Loma-Cucamonga and Chino-Los Serranos. Up to now, now the West Valley Transit Service Authority had charged no fares on its Omnitrans lines. The service begins at 6 a.m. at Euclid Avenue and Sunkist Street, with a second bus starting one hour later at the same intersection. The first bus completes its last run at the intersection at 6 p.m. with the second bus completing its last run at 7 p.m. The new route is an expansion of the old Rapid Transit District route. No service will be offered in Ontario or Upland on Sundays or holidays. The regular fare is 25 cents, and children 10 years and younger may ride free if accompanied by an adult. Passes at a one-time charge of $3 are available to senior citizens and handicapped persons. These passes are good indefinitely and may be purchased at the Ontario Department of Recreation and Parks Building, 217 S. Lemon St. from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Thursday and Friday. Persons 62 years of age or older are eligible for the senior citizen passes. Proof of age must be furnished when applying for the pass. Driver's license, birth certificate, Medi-Cal or Medicare card or other similar documents are acceptable. Applicants must appear in person as photographs are taken and appear on the pass. Saver passes for the frequent rider are available at a cost of 88¢ per month. These given unlimited use to the holder and may be purchased at the Ontario, Upland, Montclair or Chino city halls, starting Monday. One transfer is allowed per each 25 cents fare. The new route begins in Ontario and goes eastbound on Sunkist from Euclid to Sultana Avenue, heads south on Sultana to Philadelphia Street, west to Euclid, north to Belmont Street, west to Vine Avenue, north to Sunkist, east to Euclid, north in a loop around Fourth Street, Sultana and G Street, west to Mountain Avenue. A transfer to the Montclair route is possible between Fifth and Seventh streets. The route then turns north onto Mountain Avenue where it crosses under the freeway into Upland, continuing east on Seventh to Sultana, north to Eighth, west to Second Avenue and north through the downtown business district, east on Ninth Street to 11th Avenue, north on 11th to Arrow Route, east to 13th Avenue and north to San Bernardino Road. A transfer with the Alta Loma-Cucamonga route is possible at 11th and San Bernardino. The route then proceeds west on Arrow Route to Mountain, north to Foothill Boulevard, east to Campus, continues north on Campus looping Pine and Fifth avenues and 13th Street and returning to Campus. The route is then reversed.

Death accident witnesses sought

California Highway Patrol officers Friday said they were continuing to seek possible witnesses to a traffic accident Monday afternoon in a flood control channel in Chino that claimed the lives of two Garey High School students. A car containing four Garey High School students plunged over an embankment into 10 feet of water in the San Antonio Flood Control Channel between Los Serranos Boulevard and the Corona Expressway in Chino. The driver of the vehicle, Stephen Jacas, 16, of 2538 S. San Antonio Ave., Pomona, and one of his passengers, Primas Taylor, 14, of 1781 Calatana Drive, Pomona, managed to escape the sinking vehicle. Gerry Weldon, 15, of 956 E. Seventh St., Pomona, and Rodney M. Taylor, 17, of 2294 S. Glenroy St., Pomona, drowned. Highway Patrolman Gene Thomas said that officers are continuing to question possible witnesses. One report officers are pursuing is that another smaller car was seen driving in the same area at the time of the accident. Meanwhile, administrators in the Pomona school district said the four Garey students involved in the accident in Chino were not off campus legally with passes, but were truant. Three of the youths, they said, had not attended any classes that day, and the fourth showed up only for his second period class and then left. Previously, officials had reported that the four had left school on passes during lunch hour.

Townsend will seek approval of county board

Two 18-hole "championship" golf courses may soon be added to the Prado Regional Park near Chino. San Bernardino County Supervisor Robert Townsend said he will ask the county board Monday to seek bids from private enterprises to develop and operate such a facility. He proposes to have the adjoining golf courses on 275 acres owned by the U.S. Corps of Engineers and located west of Euclid Avenue and south of Pine Avenue. The clubhouse would be located near the Slaughter Adobe, a historical site. Townsend plans to use revenues from the golf courses to help maintain the main Prado Park to be constructed on the east side of Euclid Avenue. "We have had two inquiries so far from private enterprises," said Townsend. "We will be seeking bids for the lease." Should his request be approved, the Chino supervisor is hopeful that both golf courses could be open to the public by July of 1976. One firm interested in operating the golf courses has proposed designing the clubhouse to match the historical motif of the Slaughter Adobe, said Townsend. Entrance to the golf course would be off Pine Avenue. The main park will be located on 2,000 acres owned by the county and U.S. Corps of Engineers. Officials had planned to start work on the park this summer with completion set by July of 1976. Plans include a 56-acre lake for fishing and boating, campgrounds, picnic areas and hiking and biking trails. Some $4.7 million has been appropriated for the project through county, state and federal agencies. Townsend reported this week, however, that some revisions may be needed because of increased sewer costs not anticipated. The hike is due to a sewage interceptor line that would also serve the nearby California Institution for Women. Gary Patton, the county's regional parks director, said the construction of this type of line wasn't anticipated in the park's original feasibility study. During a meeting with Townsend, Patton suggested the county apply for a new state grant based on increased costs for both the sewer lines and construction of a dam. The county had previously been granted $1.3 million through provisions of the Davis-Grunsky Act. "This could mean a delay in starting construction," added Patton. "This will be up to the Board of Supervisors to determine if they want to risk the further delay."

THEY REALLY DIG IT

La Verne College students took part this week in an area-wide contest of city beautification sponsored by the Foothill Beverage Co. of Pomona. Regional winners will win $1,000 scholarships. The La Verne students repaired two senior citizen centers, landscaped a minipark and helped touch up 12 residences in La Verne and San Dimas. Getting under the grass roots, here, are Sharon Kaser, left, Robert Neher, professor of life science at the college, Pam Pappas, Gary Cisco and Cindy Maib.

Pain is subject for counselors

Laban Strite, psychologist and manager of the pain management program at Casa Colina Hospital in Pomona, will speak at a workshop on "Innovative Clinical Approaches," which will be held Sunday at White Memorial Medical Center, Los Angeles. The workshop, sponsored by the San Gabriel Valley Chapter of the California Association of Marriage and Family Counselors, will deal with the phenomenon of pain, transactional ways of dealing with a person in pain, assertive skills in coping with pain, biofeedback and how it is used to reduce pain and how all these can be used by marriage counselors. Chapter members will be asked to pay a $5 fee. Nonmembers will be charged a $12 fee. Additional information may be obtained by calling Howard Maxson, chapter president, at 213-721-9689.

Ethnic events merged at Nogales

"Around the World in Five Days" is the theme of a Combined Ethnic Week observance planned April 21-25 at Nogales High School in La Puente.

The major ethnic groups on campus are joining forces to put on a grand-scale international celebration, according to Principal David Bertroux. In the past, each group has sponsored its own week.

The big event will include a native-costume dress-up day, dance contests, international potluck dinner, school assembly, the selection of a king and queen and a fun fair.

Organizations cosponsoring the festivities are the Associated Student Body, the Black Students' Union, MECHA and the Samoan Club. Funds raised will be used for scholarships awarded by the clubs.

Parents will donate home-made food for the potluck dinner April 24 at 6:30 p.m. in the gym.

Entertainment will be provided by the Nogales Stage Band, vocalist Sherry Lyons and The Estelles, a singing group. The public is invited.

Highlighting the fun fair will be food, game and display booths and an auction of items donated by faculty and staff members.

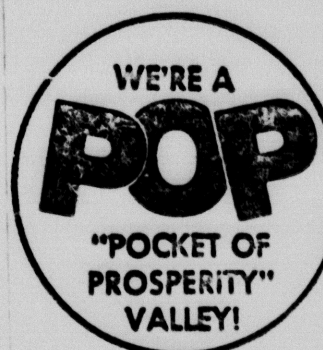

The fair will be held April

25 from 4:30 to 8 p.m. and is open to the community. Bertroux said a king and queen would be crowned at the fair.

Performances are scheduled on the gym steps by the Ballet Folklorico, the Samoan Dancers and coed folk and square dance classes.

Those on the ethnic week planning committee are Nancy Acosta, Debbie Hilburn, Gayle Jackson, Ellie Whittington, Delfina Arrellano, Larry Holguin, Lolini Iloilo and Angie Quirocho, students; and Hazel Braithwaite, Ulysses

Chapman, Al Crespo, Gerry Davis and Dee Grayson, faculty members.

Drake renamed ship

When Sir Francis Drake started on his world-wide cruise in 1577 his ship was named the Pelican, but during the voyage he renamed the vessel the Golden Hind.

Buying a new set of tires can be a devilish experience

Ever shop for new tires and feel like you were surrounded by little demons shoving price signs and gobbledegook at you?

Buy this brand! No, this one's cheaper! These are safer! Those wear longer!

Richyear X-15 Golden Fleece? Royal Flush Z-14 Stiffbelted Roughrider? Firesign Single-ply Traffic Leader?

Sorting it all out is about as easy as Chinese arithmetic.

Problem is, you can't tell much by looking at a tire. One may have a pretty tread or a sexy sidewall. But basically if a tire is black, round and has a hole in the center, it sort of looks kind of like any other tire.

You can talk to a tire salesman. But maybe he was hired for his sales ability, not his tire knowledge. And will he push the tire that offers the biggest sales commission?

Or you can try going at it scientifically. Consider the importance of various performance factors for your particular needs. Treadwear. Resistance to puncture and road hazards. Soft ride. Firm road handling. Skid resistance. Speed rating. Gas mileage.

Also weigh the various types of tire construction—conventional bias ply, belted or radial. Then there's the composition—rayon, nylon, polyester, fiberglass or steel cords.

Then what? You need still more data for value comparisons.

Some are cheaper than others, but is the $31 tire better than the $28 tire? Will this one give you the treadwear you need? Will that hold up to pulling your boat and trailer?

Buy me! Buy me! People come at you with conflicting claims. Each with an axe to grind, depending on what he has in stock.

Obviously, if you hope to make any kind of informed decision, you have to find a tire expert you can believe in. A dealer who can inspire your confidence in his concern and knowledge rather than his sales ability.

A dealer who will give it to you straight because he's more interested in developing long term repeat business than in making a buck today. One with a large selection who can and will voluntarily show you his prices on every tire and invite you to compare prices elsewhere.

A dealer who will back up the tires he sells you with a meaningful written mileage guarantee.

Admittedly this is self-serving advice from 4day. We're the only dealer we know of who offers a minimum mileage guarantee on every tire. And our every-day cut prices are spelled out in these ads and posted in our stores.

But we do try to earn your confidence.

For instance, we have a strict rule against salesmanship at 4day. Our knowledgeable store managers will answer your questions about the merits of each tire. About which tires, in their opinion, best suit your own needs.

But they'll ask you to make the final decision about the brand and type you buy.

when buying tires.

Even at 4day, despite our cut prices, despite our written mileage guarantee, you still have to take our word for certain things.

Performance factors not covered in the mileage guarantee. Like a tire's stopping ability. Its comfort. Its handling on the road.

That shouldn't be. We think you should be able to read a label engraved on the sidewall and see for yourself how a tire is rated in every major category.

You should then be able to compare that tire with other tires of the same rating and buy the one that costs least.

That's known in Official-Grade Labeling. It's been kicked around between Congress, the courts, the tire industry and various consumer organizations for years.

The good news: federal grade labeling standards for treadwear, traction and high speed performance are scheduled to go into effect May 1.

The bad news: they probably won't.

Due to numerous complications, the deadline will likely be delayed anywhere from several months to several years.

Too bad. We're all for grade labeling. It will allow you, the consumer, to make an informed decision when buying tires.

And it will be the best thing that could possibly happen to 4day. Because then it will become quite obvious who's really underselling whom. Who's offering the most tire for the least money.

D.B. couple charged with tax evasion

A Diamond Bar couple face preliminary hearing of federal income tax evasion charges against them next month as the result of their indictment earlier this week by a federal Grand Jury in Los Angeles.

They are Ronald L. and Della M. Foster of 23010 Sunset Crossing Road. Foster is a salesman and Mrs. Foster is a secretary.

The couple were charged with failure to file federal income tax returns for the years 1969 through 1972. The Internal Revenue Service charged that they had gross incomes for the period of more than $13,000 in 1969 to more than $19,000 in 1972.

Mr. and Mrs. Foster were arraigned before a U.S. magistrate in Los Angeles and released on bail. They were among several persons indicted on similar charges by the Grand Jury this week.

Area ileitis unit forming

The National Foundation for Ileitis and Colitis will meet at 3 p.m. to organize a subchapter in the valley.

The meeting is planned at Mattingly Travel Center, 19275 E. Colima Road, Rowland Heights. A representative of the Southern California Chapter will be present to discuss the aims and functions of the organization.

The nonprofit, research-oriented organization is dedicated to finding the cause and cure for the series of inflammatory diseases of the small and large intestines generally called ileitis or colitis.

The meeting is open to all interested persons. Those wishing additional information may call (213) 964-4755 or (213) 331-8533.

Garden tours at Hillcrest

The group's and private gardens at Hillcrest Homes in La Verne will be open to the public for a garden tour from 1 to 4 p.m. Sunday.

Quilts and afghans will be on display in the east lounge, says Mrs. Ethel Benjamin, activities director.

A band will play in the east lounge at 2:30 p.m. and in the west lounge at 3:15 p.m. It will feature country music.

Hillcrest was the recipient of a special award from Los Angeles Beautiful for excellence in landscaping among institutions. It was recommended for this award by the La Verne City Beautiful Committee.

Many Hillcresters themselves grow both flowers and vegetables as a hobby.

Injuries piling up

No miracle for Dodgers

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Garry Maddox and Gary Matthews slugged home runs and John Montefusco scattered seven hits as the San Francisco Giants defeated Los Angeles 3-1 Friday night to snap the Dodgers' five-game winning streak.

Maddox homered in the third inning after Steve Ontiveros walked. It was his first homer of the season and the first hit of the game off loser Doug Rau, 1-1. Matthews hit his homer in the fourth inning, a towering blast into the pavilion in right-center field. It was his third of the year.

Montefusco, 2-0, gave up a run in the first inning when Jimmy Wynn singled, running his hitting streak to 11 games, and Steve Garvey drove a triple down the right-field line. After that the San Francisco right-hander settled down, giving up five hits the rest of the way.

Los Angeles left-fielder Bill Buckner suffered a sprained ankle sliding into second base in the third inning and his replacement, Tom Paciorek, made a leaping catch of a long drive by Marc Hill in the seventh inning, taking away a home run.

In the second game of the three-game series Saturday night the Giants will start rookie left-hander Pete Falcone, 1-0, against Don Sutton 2-0, who has won 11 straight decisions over two years. Sunday Jim Barr, 1-1, will oppose Dodger rookie Rick Rhoden, 0-0, who will make his first major league start.

In the Dodgers' first, after Garvey tripled home Wynn with two away, Montefusco stranded the Los Angeles first baseman at third by getting Willie Crawford to ground out to Ed Goodson.

In the second inning Ron Cey worked Montefusco for a one-out walk. Cey was forced at second by Rick Auerbach, who stayed at first as Rau fled out.

In the Giants' fifth, a walk to Steve Ontiveros, single by Marc Hill and, after, Montefusco popped out, walk to Garry Maddox loaded the bases. But Rau escaped by striking out Derrel Thomas and getting Bobby Murcer to foul out.

In the Dodgers' half of the fifth, Auerbach walked with one out and Rau sacrificed him to second. But he was stranded when Dave Lopes grounded out.

Palmer holds onto lead

PALM SPRINGS, Calif. (AP) — Steady Sandra Palmer overcame some unsteady putting to score her second two-under-par 70 and held onto the lead Friday after the second round of the $200,000 Dinah Shore Winners Circle Golf Tournament.

Her four-under-par total of 140 gave her a one-stroke lead over excitable Jocelyne Bourassa and a two-stroke margin over little-known Debbie Austin.

Also a 143, one under par, were Betty Cullen and Jan Ferraris with three more clustered at even par 144.

The best round of the day on the par 72, 6,347-yard Mission Hills course was a 69 by Kathy Whitworth, the women's all-time money winner who came back from a poor opening round 79.

Strong gusty winds raked the area on the opening round, but let off Friday. There was little wind in the morning and temperatures moved into the 70s although in the afternoon the breezes picked up a bit.

Miss Palmer made birdies twice in her first nine holes, including one on a 30-foot putt on the 155-yard third hole.

But she followed that with a bogey on the sixth when a three-foot putt slipped by the cup. On the following hole she missed a four-foot try for a birdie, then tapped in for a par.

On the second nine, she missed birdie putts of no more than five feet on both the 15th and 16th greens.

But the consistent blonde Texan put out a beautiful iron shot to get on the green on the 17th hole and then easily sank an eight-foot birdie putt.

On the 18th hole, the leader booted her drive into the rough along the right side of the fairway, but recovered with a fine iron shot and missed a chance to go one more stroke under par when a difficult downhill putt for a birdie missed by only inches of failing.

Miss Bourassa, a Canadian from Montreal who was tied for second the opening day with a 71, had a 70.

Miss Austin, still seeking her first tour victory, had a 70 after an opening 72 and Miss Cullen, who had a 73 the first day, finished with a 70, helped by the finest shot of the day — a 75-yard chip shot for an eagle three on the ninth hole.

Tied at even par 144 were Carol Jo Skala with a 70 and Joyce Kazmierski despite a two-over-par 74.

Among a half dozen at one-over-par 145 were Carol Mann, who shot a 72, Sandra Post, Jane Blalock and Susy McAllister. Miss Blalock had a 73, Miss Post had a one-under-par 71.

"I hit the ball in some difficult places on the green today," drawled the 33-year-old Miss Palmer, of Dallas.

"The scores were lower today overall. The wind wasn't a factor today like it was yesterday," said Miss Palmer, who has won 11 tournaments since 1971 on the Ladies Professional Golf Association tour including 25 finishes in the top 20 last year.

The happy, slender Miss Bourassa displayed her glee on the 10th hole when her ball rimmed the cup before dropping in. She picked the ball out of the cup and kissed it.

Then on the following hole she scored a birdie, sinking a six-foot putt after chipping up from 30 yards away and then holding the ball aloft and saying, "This is really a great golf ball."

She had her only bogey of the day on the 14th hole when she three-putted on the par 3, 158-yard hole, but came back to birdie the 16th, chipping in a 45-footer off the edge of the green. On the difficult 18th, a 45-foot try from the thick grass off the edge of the green skipped by the pin but she came back with a 10-footer for an even par score on the hole.

After sinking her putt for a par, she grabbed her caddy and kissed him and exclaimed, "Oh, wow. This is a good golf ball." She said instead of using a new ball Saturday, "I'm keeping it. I'll play with it as long as I can."

Among the other scorers were Sandra Haynie, who had been tied for second with a 71 Thursday, had problems and shot a 76 for a three-over-par 147; Laura Baugh with a 73 for a 148 total and Amy Alcott, also with a 73 for a 148 total.

The 55-woman field, who must have a victory or finish in the top three in another tournament to qualify for the winner's Circle, are seeking a $32,000 first prize in this richest of all women's golf tournaments.

The final two rounds of the tournament will be televised by ABC television.

The event is sponsored by the Colgate-Palmolive Company.

Aaron belts first A.L. home run

Hank Aaron finally found his home run swing in the American League, connecting for the first AL homer of his record-smashing career in the Milwaukee Brewers' 5-1 victory over the Cleveland Indians Friday.

Aaron, who slugged a record-breaking 733 career homers in his 21-year career in the National League with the Braves, in Milwaukee and Atlanta, tagged Cleveland right-hander Gaylord Perry for No. 1 in the AL.

Aaron, traded to Milwaukee after the 1974 baseball campaign, lined his homer into the left field stands in the sixth inning. One batter earlier, Johnny Briggs slugged his third homer of the season, giving the Brewers a 3-1 lead.

Darrell Porter's fifth-inning homer, the first hit off Perry, Aaron's RBI single in the eighth and Pedro Garcia's run-producing single in the ninth rounded out Milwaukee's scoring.

Elsewhere in the major leagues, Baltimore tripped Boston 9-7 and Philadelphia downed Montreal 6-3. Friday night's scheduled game between Chicago and Texas was postponed.

Lee May, another newcomer to the AL, found his home run groove, knocking in seven runs with a pair of three-run homers and a sacrifice fly to rally Baltimore past Boston.

May, acquired by Baltimore from Houston last December, brought the Orioles to within one run, at 6-5, with a three-run shot in the fifth, then duplicated the feat in the seventh.

Mike Anderson knocked in four runs and Willie Montanez drove in the other two, as Philadelphia beat Montreal.

Montanez' fifth-inning homer snapped a 3-3 tie. He also singled in a run in the first. Anderson belted a two-run homer in second and drove in the other two runs with a single and a ground out.

In Friday night's action the San Francisco Giants trimmed the Los Angeles Dodgers 3-1; the St. Louis Cardinals whipped the Pittsburgh Pirates 5-4 in 13 innings; the San Diego Padres turned back the Atlanta Braves 3-1 and the Cincinnati Reds defeated the Houston Astros 5-2 in the National League.

In the American, the Kansas City Royals tripped the Texas Rangers 5-3; the New York Yankees routed the Detroit Tigers 11-3 and the Minnesota Twins nipped the Oakland A's 5-4.

Garry Maddox and Gary Matthews slugged home runs and John Montefusco scattered seven hits to lead San Francisco over Los Angeles; Luis Melendez drove in the winning run with a long single in the 13th inning, powering St. Louis over Pittsburgh; Joe McIntosh stopped Atlanta on five hits and Mike Ivie singled home the tie-breaking run in the seventh inning as San Diego defeated Atlanta and Tony Perez smashed a two-run homer in a four-run seventh to power Cincinnati past Houston.

Home runs by Harmon Killebrew and Amos Otis triggered Kansas City past Texas; New York walloped Detroit as Bobby Bonds and Ron Blomberg crashed homers and Eric Soderholm and Steve Braun knocked in key runs in the eighth inning to pace Minnesota over Oakland.

Report Pele to sign with Cosmos

NEW YORK (AP) — Pele, Brazil's great soccer player, will reportedly sign with the New York Cosmos of the North American Soccer League.

The Brazilian wizard has been offered an estimated $3 million to play three seasons with the Cosmos, the New York News said in its Friday edition.

Drake shines in Bearcats' 3-1 triumph

By CRAIG TRAVIS
P-B Correspondent

Harold Drake has made a habit of turning in fine performances for the green-and-white of Bonita High.

Friday afternoon, the slender right-hander (4-11) turned in his best pitching effort of the baseball campaign and kept the Bearcats knotted for the Hacienda League lead.

Coach Dick Solomon's club scattered six hits off southpaw Curt Burkhardt to post a 3-1 victory over the luckless San Dimas Saints.

There's a certain "air" about San Dimas' baseball fortunes — correction — ERRORS, and they've eliminated the Saints from H.L. contention.

San Dimas' only snake-bite occurred in the first inning Friday but led to two unearned runs, which proved to be the difference in the outcome.

The Saints had committed 44 errors in the last 49 innings, just one short of one miscue per inning.

Drake walked to lead off the Bonita first and stole second base. Jerry Osborne then hit a grounder to third that resulted in a run. Ted Spoulos fielded the ball and threw wildly past first base to allow Drake to score and Osborne to reach second.

Osborne advanced to third on Dave Drury's ground out and scored on Ron Pickenpaugh long fly to right.

Bonita's third run came in the fifth inning when Drury singled to left and came around to score on Pickenpaugh's booming double to left-center field.

Despite the costly error by the visitors, Drake earned the win. All the senior hurler did was:

—allow one hit, a ground ball single to left by Andy Hegel in the fifth which drove in Steve Brahs with the only Saint run.

—allow only one ball to be hit out of the infield, Hegel's single that eluded an outstretch Bill Bumstead between short and third base.

—strikeout a season-high 13 batters, including two in every inning by the fourth and sixth (only one K), and the fifth when he fanned the side.

—retire 11 straight batters between the first and fourth innings.

—allow just five baserunners; a walk to Brahs in the fifth, Hegel's hit, and three other baserunners who reached via errors.

—throw 101 pitches, 64 of them for strikes.

"This was my best game of the year," said Drake, while putting an icepack on a swollen right elbow. "This was the best my curve has worked this year and my fastball worked well. I just tried to get ahead of the hitters and come in with my best stuff."

"I've pitched well lately, but I'll have one bad inning that ends up hurting us. So today I tried to concentrate on getting past each inning," continued the all-around athlete. "It's the first game I've started and completed since the Elks Tournament."

Burkhardt (2-6) continued to have bad pitching fortunes. The slender southpaw, who entered the game with an 0-6 earned run average, pitched well for San Dimas, allowing just six hits (two each by Pickenpaugh and Bumstead) and five balls hit out of the infield.

"I have a lot of respect for their hitters," said the polite Burkhardt. "They and Royal Oak have tough lineups to pitch against."

"I lost my confidence in that first inning and had trouble with my curve until the last couple of innings."

Bonita (7-2) hosts Gladstone Tuesday while San Dimas (1-8) hosts Ontario (1-8). Both games start at 3:15 p.m.

DAMIEN HIGH'S FRANK PASTORE

Pastore tosses three-hitter, 7-0

By KEVIN CLOE
P-B Staff Writer

Damien High put some heat on the rest of the San Antonio League Friday afternoon in baseball action. And guess who provided most of the fire?

That's right, Frank Pastore, the fireballing right-hander for the Spartans, gave Damien a three-game bulge in the SAL standings by blowing down second-place Chino on three hits and 14 strikeouts, 7-0.

The victory gives Damien an unbeaten 8-0 record in the league with only six games remaining, while Chino dropped into a tie for second place with Montclair for second place with 5-3 records.

"That was Frank's best game of the year," beamed Damien head coach Matt Kolodge after the victory. "He was really throwing some heat today. He threw four innings like that against St. John Bosco, but this time he went all seven innings and was still throwing heat."

Pastore's fastball completely hand-cuffed the Cowboys, who punched their three hits to the opposite field.

At first it looked as though the Da-

UCLA errors help Trojans

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Southern California scored three runs when UCLA committed three errors on one ground ball in the sixth inning Friday night and USC went on to crush UCLA 7-2 in a Pacific-8 baseball game.

Trojan first baseman Marvin Cobb singled and Steve Kemp walked before catcher Dennis Littlejohn singled to left, scoring Cobb.

However, UCLA leftfielder Vernoy Garrison bobbled the ball for an error, moving the base runners to second and third. Kemp then scored on a wild throw to third by Garrison.

MSAC nears SCC title

FULLERTON — Stan Bland and Steve Lebovitz scored impressive double victories Friday afternoon as Mt. San Antonio College virtually wrapped up the South Coast Conference dual meet track and field title with a 75-70 victory over Fullerton.

Bland leaped 23-feet in the long jump and came back later with 46-2 1/4 in the triple jump to take first place in each event, while Lebovitz ran a 9.8-second 100-yard dash and a 21.5-second 220 for firsts in both sprints.

"We knew we could win it if everybody came through where they should," said an elated head Coach Don Ruh after it was over. "This gives us at least a share of the dual meet title no matter what we do at Mesa."

The Mounties visit the San Diego school Tuesday for the twice postponed dual meet. On paper MSAC should win it by a wider margin than Friday's outcome which was in doubt longer than Ruh would have liked.

The victory marked the Mounties' fifth win over the Hornets in the last six years. A year ago Fullerton won it all and the state title to boot.

MSAC had some help Friday, however: Jon Winstead, Fullerton's No. 1 sprinter, was out of action with a pulled hamstring. He might have made-up the difference in the 440 relay and the sprints which were all won by the Mounties.

Lebovitz, Rickey Jackson, John Houston and Willie Davis clocked 42.1 in the 440 relay.

Houston, running the third leg, took the baton from Jackson and closed a five-yard gap the Fullerton team had on the first two legs and Davis pulled away in the final 110 yards to win it.

Fullerton took the early lead in the meet with a one-two in the shot put and a sweep in the mile. Dan Rock won the mile in 4:28.4 and came back with a 1:56.4 in the 880 for Fullerton's only double of the day.

Ed Enriques then slapped a one-run single up the middle, and Don Casper clubbed a two-run single to left to close out the scoring.

Pastore had only followed one Chino baserunner through three and two-thirds innings before giving up the first hit to Paine in the fourth.

Paul Belmudes led off the fifth inning with a "wrong field" single, and then Manny Delgado sliced a double in leading off the sixth.

Frank fanned at least two batters in all but one of the innings and struck out the side in the fourth.

About Damien's lead in the SAL, coach Kolodge commented, "It'll be hard for anyone to catch us now. But the way we were winning in the first couple of games, we're not going to take anyone lightly."

He had her only bogey of the day on the 14th hole when she three-putted on the par 3, 158-yard hole, but came back to birdie the 16th, chipping in a 45-footer off the edge of the green. On the difficult 18th, a 45-foot try from the thick grass off the edge of the green skipped by the pin but she came back with a 10-footer for an even par score on the hole.

After sinking her putt for a par, she grabbed her caddy and kissed him and exclaimed, "Oh, wow. This is a good golf ball." She said instead of using a new ball Saturday, "I'm keeping it. I'll play with it as long as I can."

Among the other scorers were Sandra Haynie, who had been tied for second with a 71 Thursday, had problems and shot a 76 for a three-over-par 147; Laura Baugh with a 73 for a 148 total and Amy Alcott, also with a 73 for a 148 total.

The 55-woman field, who must have a victory or finish in the top three in another tournament to qualify for the winner's Circle, are seeking a $32,000 first prize in this richest of all women's golf tournaments.

The final two rounds of the tournament will be televised by ABC television.

The event is sponsored by the Colgate-Palmolive Company.

There's a certain "air" about San Dimas' baseball fortunes — correction — ERRORS, and they've eliminated the Saints from H.L. contention.

San Dimas' only snake-bite occurred in the first inning Friday but led to two unearned runs, which proved to be the difference in the outcome.

The Saints had committed 44 errors in the last 49 innings, just one short of one miscue per inning.

Drake walked to lead off the Bonita first and stole second base. Jerry Osborne then hit a grounder to third that resulted in a run. Ted Spoulos fielded the ball and threw wildly past first base to allow Drake to score and Osborne to reach second.

Osborne advanced to third on Dave Drury's ground out and scored on Ron Pickenpaugh long fly to right.

Bonita's third run came in the fifth inning when Drury singled to left and came around to score on Pickenpaugh's booming double to left-center field.

Despite the costly error by the visitors, Drake earned the win. All the senior hurler did was:

—allow one hit, a ground ball single to left by Andy Hegel in the fifth which drove in Steve Brahs with the only Saint run.

—allow only one ball to be hit out of the infield, Hegel's single that eluded an outstretch Bill Bumstead between short and third base.

—strikeout a season-high 13 batters, including two in every inning by the fourth and sixth (only one K), and the fifth when he fanned the side.

—retire 11 straight batters between the first and fourth innings.

—allow just five baserunners; a walk to Brahs in the fifth, Hegel's hit, and three other baserunners who reached via errors.

—throw 101 pitches, 64 of them for strikes.

"This was my best game of the year," said Drake, while putting an icepack on a swollen right elbow. "This was the best my curve has worked this year and my fastball worked well. I just tried to get ahead of the hitters and come in with my best stuff."

"I've pitched well lately, but I'll have one bad inning that ends up hurting us. So today I tried to concentrate on getting past each inning," continued the all-around athlete. "It's the first game I've started and completed since the Elks Tournament."

Will announce honorees at bowling awards banquet

On Saturday night, May 31, the Southern California Bowling Writers will hold their Annual Awards Banquet at the Sheraton-Anaheim Hotel.

Highlighting the ceremonies will be the announcement of the 1975 Men and Women All Star teams, plus the All Star squads for the boy and girl Junior Bowlers.

Culminating the evening will be the revealing of the Bowlers of the Year, for men, women, boys and girls. Tickets for the affair are set at $11.50 each and reservations can be made by contacting this writer at the Progress Bulletin.

One of the honorees on May 31 will be Dick Stoetfler who has been selected the Executive of the Year.

Stoetfler, general manager of Kona Lanes in Costa Mesa, has long been a bright face on the Southern California bowling scene.

He first made local headlines with his bowling prowess. In 1958 the respected right-hander averaged 212 at the Atlantic Academy for the highest mark in all of California that season.

In 1961, Stoetfler started the West Coast Match Game Eliminations, which has since developed into one of the top prestige tournaments anywhere in the country. Through its success, similar Elims have popped up for men in San Francisco, Stockton and San Diego, with the winners getting together for the big shoot out on Labor Day weekend.

Eliminations for women, juniors and other average bowlers have continually shot up using the Stoetfler-originated format.

In 1963 Stoetfler assumed the management of Kona Lanes and turned the popular Orange County establishment into one of the highest lineage houses in Southern California.

His bowling achievements didn't stop when he assumed control of the business and, however, as he booked a high average of 221 at Kona.

One of the top accomplishments of bowling belongs to Stoetfler who is one of only a handful of bowlers to shoot back-to-back 300 games.

On January 4, 1968, Stoetfler put together games of 225, 300 and 300 for an 825 series which included 25 consecutive strikes.

Most people will probably remember Stoetfler for his local TV Championship Bowling series which ran for six and one-half years on Channel 9 and then Channel 5.

At this present time, when people hear the name Dick Stoetfler they are liable to think of two things:

First would be his management at Kona, for which he is receiving the Executive of the Year Award, and the second would be for his writing.

Stoetfler pens a weekly article in the Pacific Bowler newspaper which has brought him more controversial names than Orange County's Richard M., who many people believe is far, far, left of Stoetfler.

It's been quite a career, and the Southern California Bowling Writers will be happy to recognize just a portion of it on the night of May 31.

AREA HAPPENINGS: Bowlers seeking a spot in the 1st Annual Citrus Belt Eliminations at Landmark Bowl will get a chance today. Ed Phillips is staging a "Win-A-Spot" Sweepstake for all 190 and under averages at 12:30 this afternoon. The cost for the four games is $10.

Another House Spot Tournament will take place at mid-night tonight when Del Rosa Bowl in San Bernardino stages its first of three 10-Game Marathons for spots in the upcoming $12,000 Sun-Telegram PBA Regional. Cost is $20, excluding sidepots, and up to seven spots will be up for grabs to all scratch bowlers not affiliated with the PBA.

The Professional Coast Bombers will stage a tournament this weekend at Bayshore Bowl in Santa Monica while the American Bowlers Association stages its Annual Meeting at Wonderbowl Downey on Sunday. The ABA's biggie will be next weekend at Bowling Square in Arcadia.

Sparking of biggies, the finals of the $123,000 Firestone Tournament of Champions, the best the PBA has to offer, will be televised this afternoon by ABC-TV at 4 p.m.

hander to make this year's 24-man finals, will be seeking to repeat last year's $25,000 victory. Hope he waves hello to Larry Stewart of the Herald Examiner towards the "dull" finish.

Nine valley schools compete

Harriers at Upland

A total of 18 schools — nine from the valley — will compete in the Upland Invitational high school track and field meet, which begins this morning at 10 a.m. at Upland High.

All the action is scheduled to get underway at 10 a.m. with the field events and 11:30 a.m. for the running events.

The 18 teams will be divided into two equal divisions — one designated for large schools and the other for small schools.

In the large school division will be Chaffey, Chino, Corona, Fontana, Montclair, Claremont, Palmdale, San Bernardino and Upland.

The small school division will consist of Alta Loma, Azusa, Chaffey, Laguna Beach, Northridge, Ontario, Royal Oak, South Hills and Victor Valley.

A total of 34 events will be conducted, 17 in each division, and six team trophies will be handed out along with medals to the first three winners of each event.

Team trophies will go to the large school varsity and

Both the men's and women's Cal Poly track teams will be in action at the Broncos' track this morning.

The men will be going against Cal St. Fullerton in a dual meet. The women will be hosting other Southern California Intercollegiate Women's Conference (SCIWC) teams in invitational non-scoring competition.

Elsewhere, Pomona-Pitzer and La Verne are at the Warrior Relays at Westmont College in Santa Barbara. Azusa Pacific is at Redlands in a six-way meet which begins at 1 p.m. Claremont-Mudd is not scheduled.

APC, 6-0 in dual meets, will be competing against UC Riverside, Redlands, University of Mexico, Cal St. Bakersfield and the University of Hawaii.

At Poly, women's field events get underway at 11 a.m. The men's dual meet with Cal St. Fullerton will start at noon.

Poly has a 4-3 record while Fullerton is 6-1 in dual meet action. However the two teams stack up very evenly in best times and distances and in meets against common opponents.

The Titans beat University of Nevada-Las Vegas, 81-64. Poly downed the same UNLV team, 88-57. Against Cal St. Los Angeles, Fullerton was defeated 192-52 while the Broncos lost, 78-66. Both the Titans and Broncos beat Cal St. Bakersfield easily. Poly by a 110-28 margin and Fullerton by a 92-41 score.

However, the future of coach Fred Jones' team remains clouded by injuries and ineligibilities although some key members are due back today. It will be the first official home meet of the season for Poly which should help the squad get "up."

The Broncos' strength is in the sprints and hurdles. But Allen Ascherait has been closing in on the 4:20 mark of late and Russ Reibold has been a major addition in the shot put and discus.

Leading the way for the Titans are sprinters Dave Tanne, distance runner Mike McNamara and weight man Fritz Coffman.

Schools expected to send athletes to the women's meet are Cal St. Northridge, San Diego St., UCLA and USC.

Pomona-Pitzer coach Pat Mulcahy says his Sagehens, 3-1 in dual meets, have a good chance at winning the Warrior Relays. Prior to last week's meet with Occidental, the 'Hens had been inactive nearly a month.

Williams, Birds never did hit it off

BALTIMORE (AP) — There are no titled descendants of the Lord Baltimore who founded this old city, and now only one Earl remains with the Baltimore Orioles.

Catcher-first baseman Earl Williams was dealt back to the Atlanta Braves Thursday, and that should make the job of managing the Orioles much easier for Earl Weaver.

Williams, an expensive acquisition following the 1972 season, went back to the Braves at a fraction of his original value. In exchange for the 26-year-old, Baltimore received minor league pitcher Jimmy Freeman and an undisclosed amount of cash.

To get Williams, who was expected to provide much needed long ball power, the Orioles had given up pitchers Pat Dobson and Roric Harrison, second baseman Dave Johnson and catcher Johnny Oates.

Almost since Williams first appeared in a Baltimore uniform, at the start of the 1973 season, there was a growing suspicion that the town wasn't big enough for the two Earls.

The two frequently disagreed and although the incompatibility was kept mostly undercover, it surfaced publicly several times—resulting in shouting matches, and once a brief suspension for Williams.

Although Williams topped Baltimore with 22 home runs in 1973 and drove in 83 runs, the fans seemed to expect more and the big guy didn't react kindly to their jibes.

His manner of moving gave the appearance of a lackadaisical attitude per se, and some of his teammates thought it was an accurate description in actuality.

Pitchers didn't like to have Williams for a batterymate, contending he often ignored their pregame talks about opposing hitters and didn't take charge behind the plate.

Williams was frequently late for meetings, practices and other deadlines imposed on the players, and had the reputation for not wanting to put forth extra effort.

Guitar replaces piano in popularity

CHICAGO (AP) — Fifty years ago a famous ad showed a gentleman seated at a piano surrounded by doubters. The ad read: "They laughed when I sat down at the piano, but when I began to play..." The ad was for the U.S. School of Music, a division of LaSalle Extension University. Since then over a quarter of a million correspondence students have taken the course.

Today the ad might read, "They laughed when I picked up a guitar..." because the guitar course is what most students now want. "I guess we're still reflecting society," said school director John Murphy.

"Fifty years ago the piano was the instrument of the times. It's the guitar."

Valley church news

Trinity Lutheran Church

The choir of the California Lutheran Bible School will be guest singers at the 10 a.m. worship service Sunday at Trinity Lutheran Church of Montclair.

The youth of the local church will join the 35 members of the choir following the worship service in a luncheon served by the ladies of Trinity. Bernice Bowman will coordinate the luncheon.

The Rev. Maynard Saeger, pastor, will speak on the theme "Sing to the Lord."

During the 7:30 p.m. Thursday service, Mr. Saeger will discuss the topic "Stop This Foolishness."

Towne Ave. Church of Nazarene

The Revelators Quartet from Montebello will sing Sunday at the 10:45 a.m. worship service at the Towne Avenue Church of the Nazarene in Pomona.

The group, which has been singing at churches throughout the Southwest for over 10 years, is under the direction of Seranton Hall.

The Rev. Clyde W. Rather's sermon topic at the service will be "If I Am Dreaming, Let Me Dream On."

At the church's 7 p.m. worship service, the pastor's sermon topic will be "Power Through Christ."

In addition to singing at the church's morning service, the Revelators Quartet will also perform during the preceding Sunday school hour.

Covenant United Methodist

The Rev. Alexander McCandless of Rowland Heights, a retired United Methodist minister, will be guest speaker at 11 a.m. and 7 p.m. services Sunday at the Covenant United Methodist Church, Pomona.

His morning topic will be "The Power of a Living Faith." Scripture will be read from Hebrews Chapter 11, Verses 1-10.

At the evening service, Mr. McCandless will present "The Greatest Story Ever Told"—the story of the life of Christ—by showing reproductions of the Old Masters of Bible Art.

Claremont Presbyterian Church

Minister-in-training George Thompson, first-year student at the School of Theology in Claremont, will lead the Sunday morning worship service at 10 a.m. at the Claremont Presbyterian Church.

His sermon topic will be "A 'New' View of 'New'." He will be assisted by Carl Orr, member of the Senior High Youth Group.

A forum on "Ganado: A Mission to the Navajo Nation" will be held in the music building after the morning service.

April Jaeger Floyd will lead a panel discussion on impressions about the Ganado Community College and its contribution to the education of the native persons of the Southwest.

"Shareholders Night," a report on film and narrative of the Senior High Easter work project will be given Wednesday at 7:30 p.m. in the fellowship hall.

Biblical treat

Although the United States leads the world in consumption, with the average American eating more than 80 doughnuts a year, the pastry is not American in origin. The Bible describes a fore-runner of the doughnut in Leviticus, directing that "cakes mingled with oil... of fine flour, fried," be used in sacrifices.

United Methodist Church

The Pastoral Counseling Center, which recently celebrated its 10th anniversary, will offer a five-week "marriage enrichment" group, beginning Tuesday at 7:30 p.m. at the United Methodist Church, Claremont.

Leaders for the series will be Rev. David E. Roy, assistant director of the center, and Rev. Peter Van Katwyk, a staff member.

Fee for the entire series is $35 a couple. Registration is limited to 12 couples.

More information on the program may be obtained by phoning 624-7130 or 626-1380.

Holy Missionary Baptist Church

Gospel singer Mary Jones will perform a concert Sunday at 3:30 p.m. at the Holy Missionary Baptist Church in Pomona.

Existence Today Is a Continual Series of Crises!

First there was Watergate, then the oil embargo, the aborted detente with Russia, the tragedy of Vietnam, the failure of Kissinger's shuttle diplomacy in the Middle East bringing the threat of another war that will involve the super-powers.

In addition, there is the spectre of depression, deepened by a record inflation resulting in spiraling crime. There is suffering and famine aggravated by an ever increasing population. There is pollution of all kinds, moral and environmental, threatening our very lives.

FROM A HUMAN STANDPOINT, THERE APPEARS TO BE NO SOLUTION, YET CONDITIONS LIKE THESE WERE FORETOLD IN THE BIBLE! Jesus said (Luke 21-25) "There shall be signs in the sun, and in the moon, and in the stars; and upon the EARTH men's hearts failing them for fear and for looking after those things which are coming on the earth."

But The Bible Also Has The Solution!

Come and Hear What IT Says About . . .

LIVING IN A CRISIS WORLD!

BRING YOUR BIBLES
AND YOUR FRIENDS

NO COLLECTION
REFRESHMENTS WILL BE SERVED

Jesus said: "Come unto me all ye that labor and are heavy laden and I will give you rest." (Matt. 11:28)

Paul said: "And the peace of God which passeth all understanding shall keep your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus." (Phil. 4:7)

GOSPEL SINGERS — The Gomez brothers, a gospel singing trio, will perform at the First Assembly of God Church in Chino Sunday night.

Temple Shalom of Ontario

Temple Shalom of Ontario will observe the Bar Mitzvah of Patrick Delin at 9 a.m. next Saturday.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Leon Delin of 9930 Rose Ave., Montclair.

The parents will serve as hosts at Oneg Shabbat receptions both Saturday and after services Friday night at 8 p.m.

United Methodist Church, Walnut

Newton McCuey, a professor at the Fuller Theological Seminary, will conduct a three-week marriage enrichment seminar at United Methodist Church, Walnut, beginning Sunday.

Sunday's session will be held from 7 to 9 p.m. The second session is scheduled April 27 from 3 to 5 p.m., and the third, May 4 from 3 to 5 p.m. There will be a $5 per couple charge for the entire course.

Baby sitting will be provided. "God, Guilt and Grace" is the topic the Rev. Bob Shuler has chosen for the 10:30 a.m. worship service Sunday.

Peace Lutheran Church

A new approach to congregational involvement in the service will be employed at the 9 a.m. service Sunday at Peace Lutheran Church, Pomona.

The regular Communion liturgy will be used but on an antiphonal basis. The congregation will be speaking and responding to each other during the service.

During the coming week, three "Evenings with Pastor" will be held. Various aspects of church life will be discussed and planned.

'Alleluia' performance postponed

The "Alleluia" musical spectacular planned for today at First Baptist Church in Chino has been postponed until May.

The praise-gathering spectacular involves combined efforts of choirs from First Baptist Church and First Assembly of God Church in Chino.

The Rev. Gene Gaffner, interim pastor at First Baptist Church, will speak on "Stable Faith" at the 11 a.m. service Sunday. His topic at the 6 p.m. service will be "The Mind of Christ."

Sunday school for all ages will be at 9:30 a.m.

The weekly church schedule includes sanctuary choir rehearsal on Tuesday at 7 p.m. The congregation will meet for prayer and Bible study Wednesday at 7 p.m.

Accordianist who turned to religion will perform

Accordianist Arnie Hartman of Hollywood will be the featured musician at the Montclair Grace Brethren Church Sunday morning at 9:30.

For many years, Hartman toured throughout the world playing in top entertainment spots and presenting concerts before heads of state and royalty of Europe. He has appeared with well known orchestras of the world.

While playing at the Flamingo Hotel in Las Vegas, he decided to return to his Hollywood home for a visit with his parents. While there, he met the late Phil Kerr who led him to a personal faith in Christ. Since then he has been a featured musician in church services, youth rallies, evangelistic services, conventions and concerts.

His program includes hymns, gospel songs, marches and novelty renditions.

Valley Church News

United Methodist, Claremont

The United Methodist Church, Claremont will continue its adult study series Sunday at 10:15 a.m. at the church.

Jack Harrison will speak on "Techniques for Parents." Anne Bennett will talk about "Liberation Theology and Women."

The Rev. James Dallas, senior minister, will preach Sunday at both the 9:15 and 11:05 a.m. worship services.

Assisting as liturgists will be Mike Parker and Karen Van Hook at the 9:15 a.m. worship and Russ Locke and Jeff Bryant at the 11:05 a.m. service.

Music for both services will be provided by the Youth Choir directed by Don Nagy.

A earlier service will be held at 8 a.m. in the Round Building.

Good Shepherd Lutheran Church

Youth of the Good Shepherd Lutheran Church, Claremont, will present "Celebrate Life," a musical drama about the life of Christ, at Galileo Hall at Harvey Mudd College Sunday at 3 p.m.

The drama is directed by John Froelich.

Christ Lutheran Church

Christ Lutheran Church in Chino will sponsor an outing for youths to Mt. Baldy after the 10:45 a.m. service Sunday. The church youth group will have a barbeque and election of officers after the outing.

The Rev. Aaron Blueger's sermon topic for Sunday's 8:15 and 10:45 a.m. services will be "Wonderous Sovereign of the Sea."

Nurseries, and a 10:45 a.m. junior church for children are available Sunday. Bible classes for all ages will meet at 9:30 a.m.

First Assembly of God Church

The Gomez Brothers, a gospel singing group, will perform Sunday at 7 p.m. in a "share and praise" service at First Assembly of God Church in Chino.

Appearing with the group will be the Open Bible Trio of Rosemead and some local church talent.

The Gomez Brothers often sing in gospel concerts that attract overflow crowds to large auditoriums on the West Coast. They have been featured with top national gospel groups and have appeared on television.

Bethany Baptist Church

Lori Knickerbocker will sing special original music at the 11 a.m. worship service Sunday at Bethany Baptist Church of Montclair to supplement the theme of the morning sermon.

Miss Knickerbocker will sing an original composition based on the scripture from 1 Corinthians 13, written especially for the series of sermons titled "The Love Chapter" by the Rev. Donald L. Bray, pastor.

Mr. Bray will speak on the topic "Love Is Not Irritable or Touchy." The Sanctuary Choir, under the direction of the Rev. Paul Kealy, will sing the anthem "All My Life Long."

The movie "Survival" will be shown at the 6 p.m. service Sunday.

There is nursery care at both services.

VW will dismiss 25,000, close two of its plants

WOLFSBURG, West Germany (AP) — Volkswagen will dismiss 25,000 workers by late 1976 and close two of its 10 plants, board chairman Toni Schmuecker told a news conference recently.

Schmuecker, who took over the leadership of West Germany's ailing auto giant in January from Rudolf Leiding, said most of the layoffs will come in the second half of this year. He said Volkswagen's Brussels plant as well as its German plants would be affected.

The dismissals will reduce the company's work force in West Germany and Belgium from 137,000 to 112,000. The cutback will be accomplished through early retirements and other compensated dismissals, Schmuecker said, and the plants at Neuenstein and Heilbronn will be closed.

There had been speculation that Volkswagen would fire even more people. But the 25,000 dismissals will be the biggest postwar cutback by West Germany's largest auto manufacturing concern.

The impact of the announcement will probably be heightened because the government claims to have evened out the recent steady rise in unemployment, which is now over a million and the highest in 16 years.

Volkswagen's retrenchment is the result of a sales slump in the wake of the oil price. The company lost some $200 million last year, its first losing year since the war.

FIESTA FUN—Four youngsters try out the rides at the fiesta at St. Joseph Catholic Church, Pomona, this weekend. Bertha Lopez, 9, is seated in the car and the others, from left, are Joe Bushor, 11, Mary Lopez, 11, Patty Martinez, 13. The public is invited to the fiesta at the church, 1200 W. Holt Ave., from 1 to 11 p.m. today and Sunday. There'll also be food and games.

Missionaries to gather at 4-day conclave in Glendora

A mini-missionary conference will be held at the Grace Baptist Church of Glendora starting Sunday.

Eleven missionaries and two appointees will share in the conclave which will last through Wednesday night.

Missionaries will be speaking at each of the three Sunday morning services at 8, 9:30 and 11 o'clock as well as at the Sunday evening worship and the fellowship meeting which follows.

"Meet Our Missionaries" programs will be offered Monday and Tuesday evenings at the home of church members, and an all-church potluck has been scheduled for 6 p.m. Wednesday at Grace Hall.

The missionaries represent Africa, South America and Indian reservations in the United States.

High school and college age youths from the church will go to Escondido next weekend to participate in a work crusade at a 120-acre ranch orphanage of 160 children, known as Centro de Amparo.

The group will leave Glendora Friday noon. The youths will help pour concrete, dig drainage ditches, and work in the field Saturday, and will share a bilingual church service Sunday. They will return to Glendora Sunday afternoon.

The Rev. Allen L. Irwin, a United Church of Christ educational missionary in Japan, will teach a class on "Japan—Questions and Answers" Sunday at 9 a.m. in the Louise Roberts Room at the Claremont United Church of Christ, Congregational.

Mr. Irwin, recently retired, taught college at Miyagi College and North Japan College in Sendai, an industrial city of about 450,000 in northeast Japan.

At the same hour Arthur Cushman McGiffert, Jr. will conduct his third in a series of five classes on the "Shapers of American Religion" and will speak about Ralph Waldo Emerson in the Sunday School.

The "second through sixth grades of the church school will travel to the Rancho Santa Ana Botanic Garden as part of their instruction in "God's Vision for All Creation."

The Rev. David M. Held will head the Sunday church service at 8 a.m. in the church, and again at 10 a.m. in the sanctuary.

The Rev. Kenneth T. Walker will be liturgist.

Mr. Held will preach on "Instructions from the Lord."

REV. HOBART VANN

Charismatic exponent to be speaker

The Rev. Hobart Vann will be guest speaker at the Valley Christian Center of San Dimas Friday at 7:30 p.m.

Mr. Vann, an evangelist, served as a missionary in South America from 1969 to 1973. In 1973, he returned to the United States where he has been actively involved in the Charismatic movement. He has traveled throughout the country, holding conferences in churches of all denominations, speaking for Full Gospel Businessmen chapters, retreats and seminars.

A graduate of Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, he pastored churches in Texas, Kentucky and Indiana before entering evangelism in 1967.

KENNETH GLOVER

Singer will perform at Mt. Sinai

Nationally known inspirational singer Kenneth Glover will perform April 27 at 4 p.m. at the Mt. Sinai Church of God in Christ in Pomona.

Glover, who is a member of the Greater Harvest Baptist Church in Newark, N. J., has toured the country for many years, singing in churches, hospitals, correctional homes and military installations.

He has received many awards from church and political leaders for his work with young people.

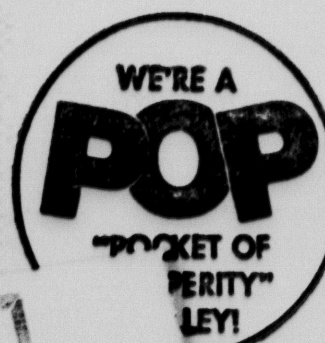

The Rev. Pleas Thomas, pastor of the Pomona church, said young people from throughout Southern California are expected to attend the service.

Among the songs Glover will sing are "How Great Thou Art," "He Touched Me" and "In the Garden."

No. 1 British car firm asks for new loan

LONDON (AP) — British Leyland, Britain's biggest car producer, said today it has asked the government for more financial aid.

The government lent the firm $120 million in December but the company said another loan, of undisclosed size, is needed to keep the company operating normally until the government decides its future shape, a spokesman said.

Ballet group offers 10th spring concert

It happened in Pomona

By Doc Peirsol

By today's standards one would have to say that in 1904 the young boys of Pomona definitely were underprivileged. They had no YMCA or city operated swimming pool to cool off in.

But in the summer of 1904 Pomona lads weren't sitting around feeling sorry for themselves. In fact, they really didn't know they were underprivileged. After all, didn't they have something going for them that was every bit as interesting as any of the hundreds of pools which are available to the young folks of Pomona today? And here's how their good fortune was described in the June 28, 1904 issue of The Pomona Daily Review.

"The thirty foot cement basin, two feet deep, in the middle of Central Park — where a fountain is to be set up someday — has been seized upon by the little boys about Pomona as just the finest and most convenient bathing pool ever established in this broad valley of ours. It is vastly superior to the irrigation reservoirs hereabout in that the water is cleaner and fresher, and besides, behold how easy of access it is.

No barbed wire fence to climb; no hot dusty roads to travel before and after a swim, and no irate orange growers to avoid. Furthermore, a great spreading mulberry tree close to the Central Park pool lends abundant shade to the spot."

There was one hitch, of course, in connection with the use of that marvelous new bathing facility. It was necessary to avoid the watchful eyes of Park Superintendent Carl Hess and his assistant Charles C. Myers who had been commissioned by the City Trustees to eject any lad who used the city park fountain basin as a swimming pool. But that threat didn't bother thirty or forty boys who, in less than an hour after the basin was filled with water, were jubilantly on hand to give the pool an initial try-out. In fact, half a dozen of the lads immediately leaped into the water clothes and all.

"Carl Hess was mad!" The Pomona Daily Review reported. "He poked around with a pole and threatened Marshal Ogle's vengeance, and finally managed to send the trespassers running home in their dripping, scanty garments. But five minutes after the park men had quit work a crowd of boys 7 to 12 years of age again appeared on the scene. There was no one to stop them and in no time at all the basin was full of shouting, happy youngsters."

The story ended with this astute editorial observation. "Carl Hess is scheming to devise some way to keep the lads out of the park pool, a task that is going to be even harder than keeping a duck out of a pond."

New legal tender gold, silver issues

By MORT REED

Today, Costa Rica issued the third series in the popular Conservation Coin Collection. This unique numismatic venture sponsored by the World Wildlife Fund involves 24 participating countries over a four year period. Three new coins, one gold and two silver of the same size and weight are released as legal tender every two months by one of the participating countries.

COINS

The coins are minted in limited numbers to the most exact specifications in both proof and uncirculated condition.

The Costa Rica gold coin, 34 millimeters in diameter, with the Greater Anteater on its reverse side is issued at 1,500 Colones. The large silver coin, 42 millimeters in diameter and valued at 100 Colones, features the Manatee, the fast disappearing sea cow which according to legend sailors have often mistaken as the mythical mermaid.

The smaller silver coin, 38 millimeters in diameter and valued at 50 Colones, shows the Green Turtle. All three coins have the Costa Rican National Coat of Arms on their obverse.

Spink and Sons, Ltd., London, England, the world's oldest numismatic authority is managing the Conservation Coin Collection. The coins are minted and designed at the Royal Mint in London.

The first issue in the collection was released by the Bank of Indonesia last October. Tanzania released the second issue in December but the Indonesian silver coins were a complete sell-out world-wide.

Proceeds from the sale of these coins go to World Wildlife Fund International. The World Wildlife appeals with the countries that are selling the coins, and the conservation departments of the participating issuing nations.

WORLD PAPER MONEY

The Standard Catalog of World Paper Money by Albert Pick has just been released for sale to the public by the co-publishers, Krause Publications of Iola, Wisconsin, and Ernst Battenberg Verlag of Munich, West Germany.

The new catalog is extremely comprehensive and includes the paper money of 249 countries. More than 4,000 previously unpublished photographs of paper currency have been utilized in illustrating the catalog. Paper money

Spring ballet concert, '75

The music of Tchaikovsky, Paganini, Ravel and Mendelssohn will fill the Claremont Colleges' Garrison Theater Friday night as the Valley Concert Dance Theater launches its 10th annual spring ballet concert.

The 8 o'clock presentation will be repeated there at 2 and 5 p.m. next Saturday. It is a preview of the performance to be presented in Sacramento May 7 for evaluation by the National Association of Regional Ballet.

Highlights of the program will be performances by guest stars John Clifford, artistic director of the Los Angeles Ballet Company, and two of his leading dancers, Johna Kirkland and Catherine Prescott. Clifford will offer the Tchaikovsky Pas de Deux with Miss Prescott, and the pas de deux from Mendelssohn's "Midsummer Night's Dream" partnered by Miss Kirkland.

Clifford, a native of Los Angeles, studied at the School of American Ballet in New York City and joined the New York City Ballet in 1966, serving as both premier dancer and choreographer. He choreographed seven ballets for the company and other works for the Deutsche Opera in Berlin, the Royal Winnipeg Ballet of Canada and the San Francisco Ballet.

Miss Kirkland, also a former member of the New York City Ballet, has performed leading roles with companies throughout the nation and was guest soloist with the Lyric Opera in Chicago. Miss Prescott, a former student of Leona Norman and Richard Gibson, was soloist with the Stuttgart Ballet in Germany.

"Spring Concert '75," as the program is entitled, will also include excerpts from "Americana," choreographed by VCDT artistic director Joann Warner; Paganini's "Moto Perpetuo" and "House of Tomorrow," also choreographed by Miss Warner, and Ravel's "Andante for Harp and Dancers" and McAnis's "Encounter," both choreographed by Robyn Whitney.

Don Scott stands in his salon at 1652 N. Garey Ave., Pomona.

Hair snarl is magnified 300 times by microscope.

More are turning to hair pieces

The number of men wearing hair replacements is escalating rapidly, according to hair stylist Don Scott, owner of Don's Hair Styling, 1652 N. Garey Ave., Pomona.

As recent as five years ago, about one-half of one per cent of the men admitted to wearing a hair piece. Now the figure would be nearer to five per cent, Scott added.

Scott has been a barber since 1956 and has been a hair stylist for both men and women in the valley for about 10 years. He has been at his present location 7½ years.

He does all types of hair styling and is a specialist in the designing and contouring of hair replacements.

In fact, Chuck Reese, owner of the RGW Co., one of the country's larger hair piece manufacturers, said Scott is "a real master at designing and caring for hair replacements."

In describing hair replacements, Reese said the only ones people recognize are the bad ones.

"Many well-done hair pieces are being worn by men you meet every day, you just don't know it," he added.

Making a hair replacement is a complicated procedure, said Scott. Each man's head is shaped differently and his color, texture and growth patterns differ.

Scott studies a man's features, does a contour analysis and creates a mental picture of what is desired.

He then makes a skull pattern and fills in complicated "orders" which include up to 16 samples of hair from the temples, crown and back of the head.

Scott pointed out the fact that most people have from three to eight shades of color in their hair. These are carefully matched and patterned.

After the hair replacement, which may weigh less than an ounce, arrives from the factory, Scott cuts and styles it.

It takes about six weeks from the first session until the wearer has a new hair style.

"We find that men who are confident that they look good are generally more successful," said Reese. "This is one reason that many younger men who are losing their hair seek a hair piece early."

Scott serves his clients by appointment only.

"I respect a man's privacy and I know that time is valuable to my clients," he said. Believing that he should keep abreast of current trends in hair styling, Scott attends many workshops and seminars, including one this week.

Persons interested in making appointments may call Scott at 622-2443.

Choral concert Tuesday at Bonita High

By TIM CLARK
Bonita Reporter

The Bonita High School Chamber Singers will highlight the program on Tuesday in the Bonita High Choral Concert.

The concert, which will be held in the school's Student Union, will begin at 8 p.m. Admission will be $1 per person.

The Chamber Choral will perform and when combined, the two groups form the concert choir.

Bonita choral director Tom Antal, now in his second year at the school, received his bachelor of music degree in music education from USC in 1973.

The Chamber Singers comprise 29 of the finest vocal performers in the school. They perform in formal attire, the men wearing contemporary black tuxedos and the women wearing light blue formals.

The singers are Sue Bradshaw, Nancy Brubaker, Terri Godbout, Colleen Keene, Dana Mishler, Colleen Schultz and Marilyn Singletary, sopranos; Debbie Johnson, Laurie

Keene, Suzie Myatt, Joanne Schrock, Janice Shipman, Cathy Stevenson and Carol Young, altos.

Tim Clark, Rocky Covill, Mark Goodwin, Ed Hillary, Gerald Larson, John Richardson, Nick Rodriguez and Jim Shuttis, tenors; and Greg Lapp, Rich Lapp, Loren Lowe, Dick Mayer, Kevin Sly, Mike Waters and Dennis Welch, basses.

'Missionopoly' nets $4,040.39 at PCHS

By REGINA DE PAOLA
Pomona Catholic

Pomona Catholic High School has raised $4,040.39 in a mission drive to help the poor and needy overseas.

Their theme this year was "Missionopoly." Various money-raising functions were held, including a bike and walk-a-thon which raised $2,515.96.

The girls biked 15 miles or walked 6 miles. Class representatives participated in a dance marathon. They danced three hours to raise $355.01.

Student body officers sponsored a mission banquet to introduce students to the daily diets of many of the overseas poor. Students paid 75 cents for refried beans and tea. This brought in $112.80.

A "minty mile" was held at a school rally and raised $371.14 through class contributions.

The final event, a mission talent show, raised $685.43. Each class presented three short skits. Baskets were passed to collect money.

Classes individually raised money. Car washes were held, along with bake sales, and box lunch sales.

Many contributions were received from area citizens. The $4,040.39 will be sent to missions in the Fiji Islands, Taiwan and the Philippines Islands.

Girls state citizen

Trisha Young, junior class president at Claremont High School, has been selected Girls State Citizen from Claremont for 1975 by Keith Powell Unit 78, American Legion Auxiliary, according to Mrs. Albert Akin, president.

Miss Young will participate in Girls State at Sacramento State University June 30-July 7. Girls State offers practical experience in city, county and state government.

Representatives are selected on the basis of leadership, citizenship, character, scholastic standing and interest in government.

TRISHA YOUNG

It's happening . . . Fremont career day

Chino High School's annual art festival will be held April 21 from 7 to 9 p.m. and April 22, 23 and 24 from 8 a.m. to noon in the school gym.

Ceramics, jewelry, textiles, leather, paintings, photography and drawings will be exhibited and judged.

Student directors are Elaine White, overall design; Juliana Gannell, communications; Mike Brittan, demonstrations; Doug Fair, display; John Carpenter, sales and Charmaine Martinez, protection.

Teacher Ted Bergeson is chairman of art directors. He is assisted by teachers Ellen Cadarette and Don Pederson.

Ribbons will be awarded first, second and third place winners in each category.

SCHOLARSHIPS

The Pomona Police Wives Club is offering a $100 scholarship for the best essay written by a graduating senior from a Pomona high school.

Club officers said there will be a choice of three topics. Details are available now at high school principals' offices.

SCHOOL PLAY

The Devil's Ring Theater of Pomona High School is accepting reservations for its third and final show of the season, "The Odd Couple."

The box office is open from 9:30 a.m. to 2 p.m. Monday through Friday. Telephone reservations may be made by calling 623-3251, Ext. 370.

Tickets are $2 for adults, $1 for children under 14 and for students with ASB cards, and admission is free for season and life patrons. Life patrons must make reservations one week in advance in order to get preferred seating. Season patrons must make reservations three days in advance.

The comedy opens Monday and will be repeated May 2, 8 and 9. John Keepers is directing.

The first Career Day will be held Wednesday at Fremont Junior High School in Pomona, according to Principal Rafael Estupinan.

Thirty guests representing labor, management and the professions will be on campus to speak with the students.

The seventh and eighth graders will hear about such jobs as banking and court reporting as they listen to their guest speakers who will range from air conditioning experts to paramedics.

Under the supervision of business education teacher Mildred Taylor, the students wrote letters inviting their guests. The students will serve as hosts and hostesses during the day.

Estupinan said plans are to make Career Day an annual event at Fremont.

Actress describes trip to China

By JUNE DUGAN
"YOU CAN GET THERE FROM HERE," by Shirley MacLaine, W.W. Norton, $7.95.

Just another rags-to-riches story of her life by a well-fed and well-housed movie star? Confucious say, "Look again."

Presidency for Ted discussed by author

By WILLISTON WIRT
TED KENNEDY: PROFILE OF A SURVIVOR. By William H. Honan. Quadrangle, $6.95.

Will Ted Kennedy be elected President? Many will read this book to find the answer.

(Williston Wirt is on the staff of the Pomona Public Library.)

The author is a "New York Times" reporter who has travelled with Kennedy, interviewed him on countless occasions, and visited him at home when he was surrounded by family. Excellent photographs have been included, some of which show Kennedy hospitalized after the 1964 plane crash (for which he still wears a back brace), delivering the eulogy for his brother, in St. Patrick's Cathedral in 1968, and hitting the campaign trail in Boston and other cities.

The Chappaquiddick episode is fully covered. Kennedy's account is shown to leave many unexplained gaps; but the author believes that Chappaquiddick is a closed and forgotten issue. "Robert Kennedy lived down his association with Sen. McCarthy (he worked for McCarthy's sub-committee). Harold Hughes, junior senator from Iowa, overcame his drunkenness; and Grover Cleveland was elected President after it was revealed that he had an illegitimate child."

Ted Kennedy, while not disavowing a future Presidency, says that his present interests revolve around his role as a United States Senator. "The Senate is where the action is, and where the great issues of war and peace, human rights, and the problems of poverty are being made. It is a forum I want very much to be a part of and have some influence with."

There is considerable interest in the chapter entitled "Kennedy Gets Cracking" in which Senate activity and processes are described.

In practice the Senate bears little resemblance to the dem-

This is the story of the dancer's trip to the People's Republic of China with a group of selected American women, a probing study of the Chinese life-style now, a generation after the Revolution.

First Miss MacLaine deals with some of the sordid aspects of life in Hollywood today, the tinsely front that barely disguises the plight of the actor and the movie industry today.

Then she is plunged into her disastrous television series, "Shirley's World," which "became for me an experience something akin to what Vietnam must have been for Kennedy, Johnson and Nixon."

Her next disaster was her experience on the campaign trail for McGovern in the presidential campaign. Her view of the campaign, her devotion to and mild disillusionment with McGovern is an extremely interesting part of the book.

But the highlight, of course, and what it's all about is the realization of her dream—going to China.

Shirley was invited to China by Chiao Kuan Hua, the foreign minister. The invitation was expanded to espouse the first American women's delegation to China. It could include a party of 12, which would include an all-woman crew to film the trip. The women were chosen carefully, since the Chinese stipulated they wanted "regular" women, not celebrities, or Marxists, or doctors or radicals.

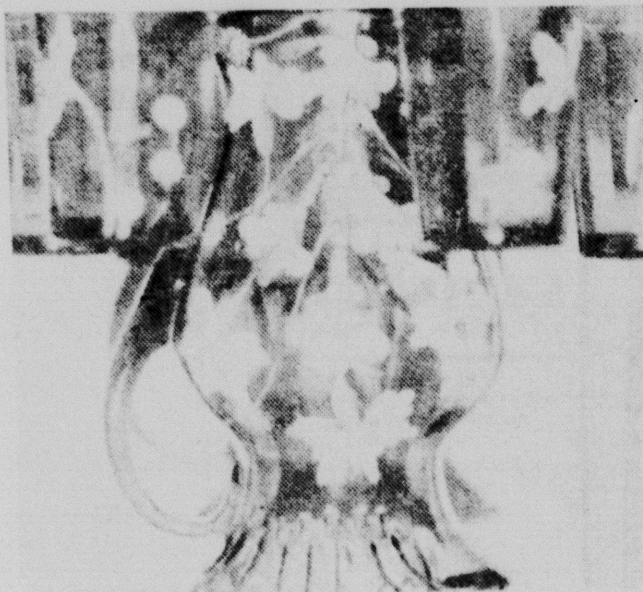

The group finally included a black woman from Mississippi, a clerk from Texas, a writer, sociologist and researcher from Puerto Rico, a Navaho Indian from Arizona, a 12-year-old schoolgirl from Wisconsin, a psychologist from Minnesota and a conservative Republican housewife.

The remainder of the party was composed of the filmmakers.

The experience resulted in cultural shock for most of the women, with some of them becoming physically ill. They were all deeply moved by the way the Chinese pulled together, so that every one of their millions could survive. In one generation, the country had torn down thousands of years of traditions and built a new society based on ideas completely alien to Americans. Most outstanding was how the people can live in complete harmony with no competitive instinct and certainly no artistically creative instincts.

The trip turned all of them to introspection, but Shirley is finding her earlier self. She has returned to her career with a song-and-dance act at Las Vegas.

Valuable heirloom pitcher

By DOROTHY HAMMOND

Q. The enclosed photo shows a fancy blue water set, decorated with enameled. These pieces were left to me by my grandmother, when she died at the age of 76. They were given to her as a wedding gift when she was 25 years old. Any help in evaluating these pieces will be appreciated. Mrs. R.L.M. (SE) S.C.

A. Water pitchers like you describe in perfect condition are currently being priced about $125, while the matching tumblers sell for $18 to $22 each.

Q. I would like to know the value of two metal bed warmers brought from Germany by my mother years ago. Both are oval, but the larger example is made of copper, while the smaller is tin. This type was filled with hot water through an opening in the top, and was carried by a bail or strap handle. Mrs. E.S. (W) Cal.

A. Judging from your enclosed photo, your small tin bedwarmer is worth approximately $20, and the copper warmer, around $35 — in your area.

Q. Since our local library cannot supply me with the information concerning the value of a family heirloom they suggested that I write to you.

I have my uncle's candy scales, which were used for many years in his grocery store in rural Minnesota. The pan is brass, and is as good as the day he purchased it new. The iron portion of the scale is painted (originally) reddish orange, with gold trim. The latter is almost worn away. A long brass arm extends outward, complete with a brass slide for balancing. The only identifying mark is the word "American," molded on the top of the base. How valuable are these scales? They weigh up to four pounds. Mrs. H.McL. (N) Michigan

A. Your small scales are worth about $65-$75.

Q. I would appreciate very much knowing the prices of three pieces of pressed glass in the Shell & Tassel pattern. I have a covered sugar bowl, a spooner, and the low compote. A.R. (E) Maryland

A. If perfect, the value of your sugar bowl if round, is about $45; square, $55. The round spooners in this pattern are worth about $18, and the square type, slightly higher. And compotes sell from $35-$45.

Q. I have an extremely beautiful old teapot marked CLEWS in deep blue. The name of the pattern simply isn't distinguishable, but the decoration is scenic. My mother bought this piece at a garage sale in Kansas City about ten years ago or longer. I believe the piece to be of value and would like your opinion. It appears to be in pristine condition, but its surface has some crazing. Your help in estimating the age and value of this old teapot will be appreciated. Mrs. A.L.S.

A. Your marked Clews historical blue Staffordshire teapot dates from the early years of the last century, and prices for these very collectible pieces range around the $500 figure.

Q. My family has roughly eleven complete years of the monthly magazine ANTIQUES, which covers the time period from 1927 through 1936. The paper on which these magazines are printed is heavier than the paper used today, and has a very fine satin finish. The many illustrations and photographs are excellent. Could you tell me what would be their approximate worth? Mrs. L.C.C. (SE) Va.

A. From $1.50 to $2.00 for each issue.

Q. I would like to know the possible value of an early old Mary Gregory snuff bottle which contains some of the crystals once used in these bottles. The color is cranberry, and the small child and some of the surrounding background is done in white enamel. The bottle is 1 1/2 inches high. Mrs. L.P. (E) Delaware

A. If perfect your Mary Gregory snuff bottle is worth about $22.
